Personal Goal

After a long break from acting during which my husband and I raised two girls, held successful management careers and ran a profitable business, in 2018 I commenced acting courses to re-discover theatre, update my acting skills and begin to develop a network. Whilst my current interest in theatre is multifaceted, primarily I am exploring my potential to be a semi-professional artist.

Work History

2007 – current Company Director, People in Plastic

People in Plastic is a medium-sized wholesaler of industrial plastic products based in Rocklea, Brisbane. Established in 1977, my husband Graham Paul and I have been operating the business since 1999. We have expanded the business to include distribution centres in Sydney, Melbourne and Perth.

1995 – 2007 Head of Operations, Golden Casket Lottery Corporation

Golden Casket is a licensed lottery provider. I commenced as Training and Development Officer and completed a Graduate Certificate in Human Resource Management. A subsequent Masters of Business Administration allowed me to progress through promotion to senior management roles.

1988 – 1995 Recreation Industry Employment

Completing my Bachelor of Arts (Recreation Administration) led me to hold various positions in this wide-ranging industry including Tour and Exhibit Guide, Activities Co-ordinator at TAFE Colleges and Hospitality management.
